

Chili Round Up

by i Entertainment

Food and meal preparations are one of the cornerstones that everyone resonates with. There is something familiar and inviting about a kitchen that just makes everyone feel a little more comfortable. We want people feeling comfortable with our food programs because these are some of the most enjoyable programs we offer. There are other foods and drink that work well with food programs. Be sure to ask an i Entertainment Event Specialist how we can build our programs to fit your group's needs.

of falling off a horse and hurting yourself.

You don't get much more 'Texan' than chili and this is one of those team building programs that has everyone having a great time and at the end, they will leave thanking you for a memorable experience. Then you can thank us for making it so simple and turn key.

Cowboys worked the unending plains of Texas with little comfort. One of those cowboy comforts? Chili.

When you want to make a meal and not an appetizer? Chili.

When you want to separate the men and women from the children? Chili.

Physical Impact: Medium

Program Guest Minimum: 20 Guests

Team Size Recommendation: 4 to 10 Guests Per Team

Room Size: 20' x 20' foot print with 6' Table provided by venue

When you want a team building that will put hair on your chest? Chili.

Most team building companies offer some kind of 'Iron Chef' competition. But when you are in Texas... you want to make something that feels like Texas. So embrace your Texas experience by doing something cowboys did. Without the risk

i Entertainment

214.808.4416
info@i-entertainment.net
www.i-entertainment.net
sales@i-entertainment.net

